What is their religious building? What are their rituals? A synagogue is a place where Jewish people go to worship. Although the synagogue is a place for worship, many are also used as a place to study or as a community centre. In some places a synagogue is known as a temple. Most synagogues have many rooms and a large hall for people to gather. They usually visit the synagogue on Saturday morning to worship during Shabbat. Shabbat is the Jewish Day of Rest, when Jewish people remember God and rest. It takes place from sunset on Friday until sunset on Saturday. The word synagogue means 'bringing together'. It is a place where people come to pray, study the Torah, and come together for events. Jewish people believe in God; synagogues don't have images of God or people.	Virtual tour of synagogue: https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zqbw2hv/articles/zsdhtrd What can you find inside a synagogue? https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zqbw2hv/articles/zsdhtrd Interactive synagogue https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/inside-the-synagogue-what-do-you-need-to-know/zb3f2sg

What are their religious celebrations? How? Why What is Hanukkah? Hanukkah is the Jewish Festival of Lights. The word 'Hanukkah' means 'Dedication' in Hebrew. It celebrates a miracle that happened in Jerusalem over 2,000 years ago. When is Hanukkah? Why is it celebrated? Hanukkah (or Chanukah in Hebrew) is celebrated in November or December every year. It lasts for eight days. It takes place in November or December and marks the winning back of the Second Temple in Jerusalem from the enemies and a miracle of a tiny amount of oil, only enough to light the temple menorah one day and stayed alight for eight days. How is Hanukkah celebrated? <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Games - Games are often played at Hanukkah. The most common game uses a dreidel which is a spinning top with four sides.2. Gifts - Hanukkah is a very special time for Jews so people often give each other gifts and Hanukkah money called Gelt. Some families give a small present to children on each of the eight nights of Hanukkah.3. Hanukiah - Hanukkah is celebrated by lighting one candle on a nine-stemmed candelabrum called a hanukiah each day. The hanukiah symbolises how God looked after the Jewish people during a difficult time. Lots of Jews call this candelabrum a menorah.4. Food - Hanukkah is a great time for eating delicious foods. Some dishes have special significance, such as latkes (a kind of potato fritter), pancakes and doughnuts. This is because they are fried in oil. When they make them, Jewish people remember the miracle of the oil lasting eight days in the temple.	What is Hanukkah? https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/35030671 Hanukkah Traditions https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/zn3xqfr
